

MEDIA RELEASE April 01, 2020
Tribal Journeys 2021

Dear Tribal Canoe Families,

The Tla'amin Nation is excited to host Tribal Journeys in 2021. Like many of you, we recently learned that Tribal Journeys 2020 Paddle to Snuneymuxw had been cancelled due to the current Covid-19 pandemic. The Tla'amin Nation stands together with our Snuneymuxw relatives as we work to keep our families and communities safe. We look forward to hearing the plans for a future Paddle to Snuneymuxw event. Understandably, there is an air of uncertainty and a longing to reconnect with one another. So, although we will not gather this year, we hope you take solace in knowing that planning for Tribal Journeys 2021 Paddle to Tla'amin continues. We look forward to sharing details in the coming months with each of you as conditions permit. Information will be available at the website below. Until then, we wish you and your families good health.
